CANADIAN WHO'S WHO
1997

Canadian Who's Who is the largest and most authoritative publication of its kind in Canada, offering instant access to more than fifteen thousand prominent Canadians in all walks of life. Published annually to provide current and accurate information, the familiar bright-red volume is recognised as the standard reference source of contemporary Canadian biography.

The Canadian Who's Who was first published in 1910 by The Times Publishing Company of London, England, and contained some two thousand biographies of important living Canadians. The late A. L. Tunnell acquired copyright from The Times in 1932, and in 1936 published a substantially larger second edition which incorporated the two editions of Canadian Men and Women of the Time, a parallel reference work edited by Henry J. Morgan. Beginning with the 1936 edition, the Canadian Who's Who was published under the continuous editorial direction of A. L. Tunnell for forty-two years, until his retirement and the acquisition of the work by University of Toronto Press.

Until University of Toronto Press acquired publication rights in 1978, and with the exception of the war years, the Canadian Who's Who was usually issued triennially, with five supplementary booklets (the Who's Who Biographical Service) published at intervals between editions of the main volume. Thus while the Canadian Who's Who 1979 was cumulative for the years 1976-9, the 1980 edition was the first to cover a one-year period.

In 1985 University of Toronto Press also published Canadian Who's Who Index 1898-1984, a complete index, compiled by Evelyn McMann, of the entire backlist of Canadian Who's Who volumes, which includes full name, year of birth, profession or occupation, and the volume or volumes in which each biography appears. Also indexed are the 1898 and 1912 editions of Canadian Men and Women of the Time, edited by Henry J. Morgan. In addition, backlist volumes have been published in a microfiche set under the title, Canadian Who's Who in Microfiche 1898-1975, and Canadian Who's Who in Microfiche 1979-1988. The Canadian Who's Who on CD-ROM is being published for the first time in 1997.

Canadian Who's Who 1997 includes biographies of persons who are of current national interest for reference or inquiry. Over five thousand individuals were invited to complete questionnaires from which new biographies were compiled. Those already listed in earlier editions were given two opportunities to update their biographies.

The guiding principle governing selection for inclusion has not changed since the first edition was published. There is no charge, nor is there any obligation whatsoever, for the inclusion of a biography in the Canadian Who's Who. Biographees are chosen on merit alone.

Those listed are selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society, or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada. Detailed entries give date and place of birth, education, family details, career information, memberships, creative works, honours, and awards, together with full addresses. Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life: business, academia, politics, sports, the arts and sciences, in fact from every area of human activity.

Since the biographies document the achievement of Canadians from a wide variety of occupations and professions, Canadian Who's Who records the diversity of culture in Canada.
